DECEMBER 2017

2017 has been another exciting year for Standing Voice with an incredible amount of progress across our programmes. Our highlights include: bringing the Tanzania Albinism Collective on a tour of the UK; watching our life-saving programmes featured on the landmark BBC Two documentary Born Too White; realising the expansion of our Skin Cancer Prevention and Vision Programmes across the African continent with a fully operational Skin Cancer Prevention Programme now in place across Malawi; and, lastly, hosting our inaugural Summer Skills Workshop on Ukerewe Island.
